Protection of Children
The Protection of Children (Scotland) Act 2003 places a statutory obligation on schools to safeguard and promote the welfare of children attending them. Accordingly, the Governors of Beaconhurst School require all new appointees to provide the following information.
Has the Secretary of State for Education (England and Wales) or by Court Order (Scotland) ever issued you with a personal warning or caused your name to be included on List 99 or Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 which names those who may not be employed in school?	YES/NO

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974

The post for which you are applying involves substantial opportunity of access to children. It is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974. You are therefore required to declare any convictions, cautions or bind-overs you may have had, regardless of how long ago and even if they would otherwise be regarded as 'spent' under the Act. You are also required to declare any outstanding case(s) against you.

You should be aware that the School will institute its own checks with Disclosure Scotland, which the School will pay for. Please submit information in confidence, enclosing details in a separate sealed envelope which will be seen only by the Headmaster. Failure to declare a conviction may disqualify you from appointment or result in summary dismissal if a discrepancy comes to light.

Please tick one of the following statements which apply to you and delete the other.

- I have nothing to declare
- I have enclosed information in a separate, sealed envelope

I declare that:

- All details provided by me as any part of this application are true and correct.
- I have not been disqualified from working with children.
- I know of no reason why I should not be eligible for this post and am able to carry out my duties if appointed.
